“ Nancy was one of the strongest women of faith that I have ever known. Even though we were polar opposites, we were best friends for 40 years. I like to think that we gave each other the best part of ourselves. I definitely got the better end of the deal. I love her and will miss her every day. Wait for me on those streets of gold.

“ Nancy’s tireless volunteerism and her steadfast faith were a testament to her character, inspiring us all to contribute in meaningful ways. She exemplified the heart and soul of Jacksonville, enriching our lives with her kindness and strength. The Laster family send our heartfelt condolences to the Gillespie family and all who knew and loved her. May her spirit live on in the lives of those she impacted, and may her family find comfort in the knowledge that her legacy will be honored and remembered.
