

Mr. Patrick J. Miller

September 14, 1946 - December 28, 2016

Patrick Joseph Miller passed away peacefully in his home on December 28, 2016.

The son of Leo and Viola Miller, Pat was born in Jefferson, Iowa, and raised in central Wisconsin. He loved hunting, tinkering on engines, raising a garden and doing yardwork. He was an avid football fan, with his favorite teams being the Green Bay Packers and the Crimson Tide. He loved hosting visitors in his new home, showing them the Oxford area and telling of its history. Pat had been a dairy farmer for part of his life, but his passion was working on engines, large or small. Being a devout Christian, Pat was an active member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church in Anniston, Alabama.

He was the devoted husband and soulmate of Carol, the loving father and father-in-law of Kurt (Danielle) Miller, David (Lori) Miller, Brenda (Jamie) Scheel and Brian (Tasha) Miller, the devoted grandfather of ten, and the loving great-grandfather of three.

He will be deeply missed by siblings and siblings-in-law Terri Misener, Mary (Alan) Griepentrog, Gina (Dale) Bauer, Kathy (Bryan) Hauser, Janet (Doug) Kops, John (Angie) Miller, Betty (Stan) Kauer, and Joseph Burrow.

He is preceded in death by parents Leo and Viola Miller, parents-in-law Bob and Merle Moore, sister Suzanne, two brothers-in-law, one niece and two nephews.

Services will be held 1 p.m. on Saturday, December 31, at Miller Funeral Home in Oxford. Special thanks to supporting friends and neighbors and the wonderful care provided by numerous physicians and Compassus Hospice.

“ It is with joy that I recall those days on the Miller farm. In recent years, I reminded Pat of how he dared Theresa and I to run through Some cockle burr bushes in the pasture. Little did we understand the results of the challenge. ...Our wool coats were plastered with burrs. My recollection is that Pat got no punishment & Theresa and I had to stand at an ironing board plucking burrs until none remained. Upon reminding cousin Pat of this memory; there came no apology...just Pat's chuckling laugh.
