To know Steve Ogan, was to love him! He was a gentle giant who feared God only. His faith, love and devotion to God was immense and it is evident in the countless number of people who continue to express their love for him.

The family would like to honor Steve's wish to celebrate his life as well as to honor his Hawaiiin heritage and in doing so, the Hawaiiin Lei will be given to those who are able to attend his celebration.

In Hawaii, all important occasions are times to wear a lei. As a symbol of respect and love for the person who departed, Hawaiians Leis are worn to honor their loved ones at their Memorial service.

“ Sergeant Ogan (I can't refer to him any other way) was one of my drill sergeants at Fort McClellan, Alabama at the US Army Military Police School in 1987. He was firm, but fair, and the lessons he taught me resonated throughout my time as both an MP and a civilian police officer (32 years and counting).

I was very sad to hear of his passing, my condolences go out to his family, friends, and colleagues.

“ My condolences to the family. SSGT Ogan was my Drill Sergeant from December 1986 February 1987. SSGT Ogan was an awesome man. I saw him a month or two after basic and he politely reminded me that I was in need of a haircut. I have often thought of SSGT Ogan.

“ My condolences to the family and friends. I got to meet Patrick soon after he joined the Federal Bureau of Prison. He was a serious hardworking man, proud of his work, ready to lend a hand to his fellow coworkers with enthusiasm. We got to chat about how in love he was with his family. Im honored he befriended me. I'll definitely be celebrating his life.
