

Polly "Jean" Smith

January 26, 1946 - February 28, 2025

Polly "Jean" Smith, 79 of Oxford, Alabama passed away February 28, 2025.

A funeral service will be held at Hesebah Baptist Church on Saturday, March 8, 2025 at 12:00 PM. A visitation will be prior to the service from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm. A graveside service will follow at Hesebah Baptist Church cemetery.

Stephen Dempsey and Jeff Layton will be officiating.

Pallbearers will be Jamie Smith, Billy Turner, Eli Turner, Allen Varner, Noah Turner, and Ben Varner

She is survived by her husband, William C. Smith; daughter, Bethany M'Sadoques (Carl); sisters, Sheila Varner, Judy Smith, Marsha Dempsey, and Carolyn Goodman.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Ilene Blair Triplett; father, Dowery Triplett; and sister, Linda Triplett.

Jean was born January 26, 1946 in Heflin, Alabama. She attended the Heflin school system and graduated from Cleburne County High School in 1964. She was a member of 4H, PE club, pep club, and FHA.

She absolutely loved playing the piano and organ, whether at home or in church. Jean was also a big fan of word searches, the Auburn Tigers, the Atlanta Braves, watching birds, and reading the Bible.

She had a special gift for caring for children, working in daycares where she was always an amazing caregiver. Traveling brought her a lot of joy, with some of her favorite places being Niagara Falls, the Grand Canyon, the Amish countryside in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and Napa Valley.

Jean was a warm, loving, and kind woman with a big heart. She loved her family, her church, and the Lord with all her being. Known for her stubbornness and strong convictions, she touched the lives of everyone who knew her, and she will be deeply missed and forever loved.
