Richard was a fan of all sports, especially The Alabama Crimson Tide. He enjoyed it so much he could tell you any of Alabama football's history. Richard loved his co-workers and customers at Kurts Trucks and Parts. To know Richard was to love his humor. He was so funny and used humor through his worst and best times. Richard was missed the moment he passed and will be missed by so many daily, but he is no longer suffering, no more pain. He is finally at peace. Rest in peace my brother.
