

Robert 'Robby' Chandler

November 22, 1968 - January 17, 2015

A celebration of life service for Robert Charles "Robby" Chandler, 46, of Oxford will be held at 5pm Thursday, January 22nd at the Golden Springs Baptist Church with Dr. Derek Staples and Pastor David Hodnett officiating. A reception will follow immediately in the Christian Activity Center within the Church. At Robby's request, his remains will be scattered at sea with full military honors.

Robby was born on November 22, 1968 in Anniston to Sue and Scotty Chandler, and he entered into rest Saturday, January 17th, 2015 at the UAB Medical Center.

Robby is survived by his children, Stuart Chandler, Kristen Chandler, Liam Chandler, Kelsey Chandler; his mother and step-father Sue and Doug Stanfield; brothers: Scott Chandler, Todd Chandler, by his step-sister, Dee Dee Henderson, and by several nieces and nephews, and his future wife, Kathan Spears.

Robby was a 1987 graduate of Oxford High School. He made a career serving in the US Navy and US Coast Guard before retiring and returning to Oxford. He worked at Anniston Army Depot for 4 years. Robby was currently a student at South Eastern Bible College where he was studying to be a substance abuse counselor.

Robby left us with a treasure book of memories, he never lacked appreciation for others, or failed to express it. He looked for the best in others and gave the best that he had. Robby was quick to express the love, joy and grace that he received from his Heavenly Father daily.

Robby was preceded in death by his father, Scotty Loran Chandler, Sr.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to 3 Hots and A Cot at cotsforvets.org/makedonation or to the Wounded Warrior Project at woundedwarriorproject.org/donate.

“ Sue and family, I was so sorry to read of the loss of your precious Robby. I cannot imagine losing one of my children. I pray all your special "Robby" memories will help ease your pain during this difficult time. One thing I so dislike about living so far away is not being able to be with my friends during times like this. Please know my heart hurts for and with you. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I am so sorry. Praying for everyone. I know he touched so many throughout his life. Robbie escorted me in the homecoming court when I was in the 7th grade. I can just see him in that sweater and button down. He has always been so handsome with that gorgeous smile and perfect hair. I wish I could have been there to show him what his friendship has meant to me! I will treasure the memories that I have of him forever. May God's Grace and Peace be with you and carry you through this time and may the beautiful memories be with you forever!

“ It was truly a pleasure to have the opportunity to know someone as kind as Robbie. He defined the term "friend" with all the he done for my brother. He will be greatly missed.I pray that his kindness carries on to out surpass his time here on earth. Until we see you again, may you reach your long awaited home with peace, and love; leaving us with a wonderful memory that well never perish. Thank you.
