“Joyce my heart is broken but I am rejoicing that Robert is no longer suffering and singing for his Lord Jesus Christ. We have been neighbors and friends for so many years and I have some wonderful memories of being with you and Robert. I guess the best ones beside raising our kids together would be our trip to Yellowstone National Forest. I will never forget that trip. Wayne , Tim, Tab I love you and we will always be next door neighbors even after this life ends. Love you all

So very sorry for your great loss, Mrs. Deese & family. You all were always so very good to Benny & me. I remember going camping, to Granny Deese's, so many wonderful times to church & always having so much fun. We loved Ms. Adele too. I always loved to sit on your front porch & listen to the beautiful music your family made. Hearing you all sing & Wayne preach down @ Able was a joy beyond measure. We thank you for loving us. We pray God will surround you & your family with his loving care. You all will forever be in our hearts & in our prayers.
