“ Robert was the best friend that I could have asked for to share my teenage years with. From riding those Kawasaki 175 Enduro bikes together, to the High School Band, to Machine Shop, Robert was always upbeat and full of laughter. As life goes, our paths were separate for a while as Robert pursued his joy of music and I the mechanical fields. Within the last few years Robert and I would by chance meet at different places and times in Oxford. Our last conversation with be the one that I remember the most. Robert ended the conversation by saying, "You know, we were just talking about us the other day. How we worked hard, but also played hard." I agreed and told Robert that we would talk again later. I'll cherish my memories of our times together until that day and time when we will talk again.

“ Robert was a wonderful human being! He was my drum teacher & long time friend. He was like a big brother to me! We lost touch for many years and just found each other again back in the spring. Can't believe he's gone! So very fast... He was one of the BEST drummers I've ever seen or heard! What a gift & talent he had! He was Just an all around great guy! He will be GREATLY missed! Many prayers are going up for his family. We will see you again old friend. From now on, when I hear thunder... I will think of you beating your drum kit in heaven! 🙏❤️
