

Robert Lee Webber

June 14, 1945 - December 20, 2025

Robert Lee Webber, age 80, of Oxford, Alabama, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by his loving family on December 20, 2025.

Robert was born on June 14, 1945, to William Ancil and Daisy Mae Webber. His life was a testament to hard work, faith, and unwavering love and devotion to his family and friends.

In 1970, Robert married the love of his life, Denise, and together they built a strong and loving family. He was a proud father to two cherished daughters, Brandi and Sarah Beth, who were the center of his world.

Robert proudly served in the United States Navy as a Boatswain's Mate, completing one combat tour in Vietnam. He was honorably discharged and carried the values of service, discipline, and integrity with him throughout his life.

Following his military service, Robert worked as a carpenter and woodworker, trades that reflected his strong work ethic and skill with his hands, until his retirement. He was known for his calm presence and his passions for woodworking and Alabama Football (Roll Tide). Robert found great joy in crafting beautiful, meaningful pieces for his children, grandchildren, and friends which will be treasured for generations.

Robert is survived by his loving wife, Denise; his daughters, Brandi (husband Alex) and Sarah Beth; granddaughter Lindsey (husband Nick) and grandson Drew; one great-grandson Sabastian and another on the way due next year; his brother Dennis (wife Becky); his sister's Myrt and Sue (husband Terry); several nieces and nephews; and his lifelong best friend, Andy Turner.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Ancil Webber, Daisy Mae Webber, and by three sisters and three brothers.

Robert will be remembered for his quiet strength, steady kindness, and deep devotion to his family. His legacy of love, service, and craftsmanship will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Tribute Wall

AI

“ 1 file added to the album family

Alex Ibarra - December 28, 2025 at 12:52 AM

AT

“ Denise and family,

I am so sorry for you loss. I went to Oxford High School with Robert. I enjoyed our time together and he was a true friend. After school we both went into the service and lost contact with each other. He truly was a good man, even in high school.

Anthony Taylor

Anthony Taylor - December 26, 2025 at 07:25 PM

LT

“ Loved you and will miss you very much! Was always a pleasure visiting with you . R.I.P. my good friend !

Larry Trotman - December 23, 2025 at 07:48 AM

AI

Thank you for taking the time out of your day to bring him food while he was at St. Vincent. That's exactly what a good friend would do, and we truly appreciate it. You also gave Denise a much needed break from the back and forth driving to bring him food. Your kindness did not go unappreciated and will never be forgotten.

*Vr,
Alex Ibarra*

Alex Ibarra - December 23, 2025 at 04:53 PM

AI

“Bob, I've never been as eloquent as Brandi or my sister, but you don't have to worry about Denise. We will watch over her for you and help her find a way forward without you. Whatever she needs, and whenever she needs it, we will be close enough to be by her side. You were able to see and enjoy your only great-grandson, and he will deeply miss his Bob. It is so hard knowing your second great-grandchild will not get to meet you, but together we will make sure that child grows up knowing about the great man I was blessed to call my father.

I still can't tell from the picture in your obituary if that is your intoxicating smile or your resting face, because they suspiciously looked the same. Thank you for teaching Drew to love fishing. I hope I can pass that same love on to Sabastian. Thank you for being the loving grandfather to Lindsey that she deserved. I hope I can be, for her future child, the kind of grandparent you were for her. Thank you for bringing a beautiful, wonderful (and sometimes crazy, as you know) woman into this world and I couldn't imagine my life without her. Thank you for your service to our country, especially during a time when Vietnam vets were looked down on by our own countrymen. You may be gone from us physically, but your spirit will live in our hearts forever.

*Your son,
Alex*

Alex Ibarra - December 22, 2025 at 08:36 PM

DW

I don't know what I would have done without you and Brandi the last 6 weeks. Bob loved you like a son and we will all miss him 🙏❤️

denise webber - December 22, 2025 at 10:52 PM

VV

For me, it was eloquent and truly from the heart. And you know—you made him chuckle. He is so proud of you, honored to share the vow of serving our country, and proud to call you his son. Both of you also shared the same deep love for his daughter, Lindsey, Drew, and Sebastian, and he is thankful that you are close by and will be there for the love of his life, Denise.

Dear Lindsey, Our deepest condolences to you and yours. You were blessed with an extraordinary role model in your grandfather, Bob, whose love and guidance were that of a devoted father as well. You were, and always will be, his precious granddaughter and his cherished bonus daughter. He was deeply honored to walk you down the aisle and so proud to witness the woman and wife you have become. May our merciful Lord wrap you in His love and surround you with prayers and comfort during this difficult time.

Virginia Villar - December 22, 2025 at 11:14 PM

“What a beautiful obituary and such a loving, honorable legacy. A devoted Navy man, a faithful servant of God, and a loving family man whose strength and passion were reflected not only in his life, but also in the meaningful wooden pieces he created for those he loved. Thank you for honoring him so well—you allowed us to truly get to know him.

Mr. Bob Webber—we are deeply grateful for the love and support you gave our brother, Alex, during his life away from his California family.

We wish our family’s circumstances had allowed us the blessing of meeting him in person. Even so, his spirit, values, and love are clearly felt through you all. Now we trust that he rests in God’s eternal peace, and that one day we will meet. Until then, he will continue to watch over you from heaven, guiding and protecting you with the same devotion he showed on earth.

Brandi, may you feel your father’s love surrounding you always, and may God’s comfort carry you through each day. Drew, may your grandfather’s strength, faith, and creativity live on through you and remind you how deeply you are loved.

To the entire Webber family, may you be wrapped in God’s peace and strength during this time of loss, and may the love you share with one another be a constant source of comfort as you honor his life and legacy.

Please know you are all in our prayers, and we share in your sorrow while honoring a life so beautifully lived.

Love, The Villars