“ MY DEAR BROTHER,
The last time that we talked, we were making plans
Plans To get together. To go places and To do things
Then, Life happened
Bringing to mind that
We are really not in control
That life is but a collection of moments that we live through
And we have to seize each and every one of them
And maybe we didn't get that quite right
But I'm grateful for each and everyone that we shared
Your memories and laughter will remain in my heart and thoughts always
I LOVE YOU MY BROTHER
Until we see again

There is not enough words that can be spoken to ease the pain or void the heart feels when suddenly a love one takes that final step into No more pain, No more crying, No more worry Nothing but sunshine singing and telling our love ones whose there waiting with open arms how we made it over I hear that it's nothing but joy so I say to my Brother Roy you have ran the race and you fought the fight We will all miss you But pray to see you again one day In that Heavenly mansion so collect your Heavenly Medal of Honor with that smile that will always shine in our hearts.

“ During your journey on your final flight home.
White wings will carry you and you will be flown.
To the pearly gates of Heaven, where they will usher you in.
To the feet of your Lord, your Saviour, and your friend.
He will hold you in his arms and the angels will sing.
As another one of His children is delivered by white wings.
