

Sandra Jeanette (Bowman) Griffith

Sandra is survived by three daughters, Keli Griffith, Kendra G. Hollaway, and Kerri G. Ladd; seven grandchildren, F. Griffith West and wife Monica of Pinson, Victoria E. Herndon and husband Landis of Mobile, Francis E. West, III and wife Rebecca of Mobile, Silas G. Griffith and wife Whitney, Hannah A. Hollaway, Caleb M. Griffith and wife Yaba of California, and Zachary M. Griffith of Florida; eleven great-grandchildren, Kenneth Logan, Jordyn, Korban, Lawson, Gabriel, Cameron, Aubrey Kassandra, Ariella, Malik, Adrian, and Ava; one sister, Kay (Bowman) Blake and husband Scott; as well as several loved nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 62 years, Capt. Kenneth Griffith; a daughter, Kassandra Griffith; parents, Laney T. and Edna L. (Pettus) Bowman; and a brother, Wayne Bowman.

Mrs. Griffith was born on January 1, 1942, at Anniston Memorial Hospital and was reared in Welborn, AL. Attending Welborn schools and Jacksonville State University, she chose to make her husband and daughters her priority. The quintessential Southern Lady, she created beautiful homes wherever the military posted her family, even making sure that a gardenia bush was planted outside their daughters' windows so each city or country contained the comforting scent of 'home'. Living throughout the United States and Europe, she still maintained a favored position as a high-fashion model with the Macy Modeling Agency and with the Wilhemina Models (known as the Ford Modeling Agency).

After her husband's retirement from the military they returned to Anniston and family. She was active in the Golden Springs Garden Club and was a long-time member of Golden Springs Baptist Church where she served as Sunday School teacher and Youth Leader. After their children were grown, she and "her Ken" continued in their love of traveling and introduced their grandchildren to exciting new places providing wonderful memories.

Lovingly referred to as 'Goggi' by her children, grandchildren and their friends, she will forever be remembered as a loving and devoted woman. She never met a stranger, and her charm, graciousness, and loyalty gained her life-long friends. Her greatest passions in life were her family and God, never missing an opportunity to talk about her Savior and loved ones. She will forever be cherished by those who knew her.

“ I haven't seen Sandra in a long time, since Kay was in high school, but I remember she was always beautiful and so sweet to all Kay's friends. She and Ken were perfect together. I know there will be some very hard times ahead, but you know Sandra is past all pain and heartache and with the Lord. I will be praying for y'all for strength.
