Sarah Louise Forsyth Crosson born February 22, 1934, passed away surrounded by family on Wednesday March 9th.

MawMaw was retired from Anniston City School child nutrition program, a beloved member of the Oxfordfest committee, and loved working in the Coke wagon. She was a lady who never met a stranger and loved her community with all of her heart.

On Wednesday night, she experienced a glorious reunion in Heaven where she was met by our Daddy with open arms, her parents, sisters and brother in laws. What a wonderful moment for our precious Mother.

She will be missed by us all, but we are at peace knowing she is no longer in pain. We love you Mother.

A very special thank you to CARES, RMC doctors, nurses, Southern New Beacon Hospice, and her caregivers: Jawana, Chelsea, Jennifer, Hali, and Misty.
