“ Gayle was a friend to everyone she knew. She had a bubbly personality and a loving spirit. I had no doubt she jumped with joy as she enter her new home that was created especially for her. I'm sending my love and prayer to her family. I know you will have many hard days ahead when you want to run and tell her about your day or ask her advice on something. On those days ask Jesus to hug her and love her for you. Share you favorite memories of her with others. This can turn a hard day into a tolerable day. Love you all and will be lifting you up in prayer.

“ I remember Aunt Gayle making me bologna sandwiches and she would always put mustard on one side and mayo on the other side. Those were some good sandwiches. Love my Aunt Gayle.
