“ Probably my most favorite aunt of both sides of the family. She always showed me a lot of attention and love which I didn't receive from a lot of my relatives. Rest in peace Aunt Shirley because you were always something special to me. Just so sorry that we have had so many miles between us so many years. I will always remember you as the bright shining star of the Clark family.

“ I had the privilege to meet Mrs Powell through her granddaughter, April. She was so welcoming to me and wanted me to come into the house and visit. She made me feel like I had known her forever and was part of the family. What a sweet lady.
