“ My Aunt Shirley and my mother (Robert 's baby sister, Wanda Audrey) were friends from the time they were young. My mom said that she was happy when they did get married because then she knew that her buddy was going to be her sister forever. I loved to see Aunt Shirley and my mom dancing some of the dances they did when they were teenagers like the 'Pony' and 'The Salty Dog's'. They were so cute and you could just imagine they were young teenage girls in their mind again. Uncle Robert was always the DJ. I miss them all so much. Now they are all together again waiting on the rest of us. I love you Aunt Shirley and you will be missed 'gosh darn it's. Love always Maryjane
