“ I just found out December 10 that Stan had passed away, I am so sorry Mae, he was my best friend, we became best friends in the fifth grade, I enjoyed coming to your house when I was in Oxford, I wish I had known before now. I know I will miss him for ever. If there is anything I can do let me know please. He was my brother.

“ Praying for you Mae and your whole family. I loved Stanley...such a great guy! I was always so proud to call him my cousin because he was always so nice to me. There were so many good memories since we were always together, seems like, when we were growing up. We were just 3 weeks apart in age which made it even more special. I know that all of you will miss him greatly. God bless each of you!
