“ Stella was one of the nicest and sweetest ladies I have ever known. Every time I would walk into the funeral home where she worked we would talk about all the memories of when I was growing up and playing with her niece. There was One specific time when we went to eat at Betty’s BBQ and it came a tornado and we had to stop at the Oxford police station. I could go on and tell more stories. My heart and prayers go out to the family. ”

Veronica, Steve, and Ronald, you all have my deepest heartfelt sympathies. Stella was a wonderfully sweet lady! I so enjoyed talking to her when I came into Sunday School class at Hillcrest and she was there handing out bulletins. I also remember her from Trinity...she was do anything to make you smile. I am praying for peace and comfort for all of you during this time. Looking forward to seeing her in Heaven!
