“ Tawana, you will be missed so very much! I am so glad I had the opportunity to work with you at the airport and to get to know you as such a special friend. I am so thankful I got to talk with you Friday. This was so unexpected. Choo, you are one of a kind, and it has certainly been great working with you over the past several years. I love the friendship we have also. I am so sorry I was unable to be there for you, due to my accident. Seth, your mom says you have become a very good cook! She was so proud of you!
Love y'all,

“ I visited with Tawana on her birthday but I didn't realize it was her Birthday until her nurse came in with gifts! We had a very good time and she amazed me with her strength and courage dealing with her pain.

At that time she was taking hardly any medication for the pain, but she said that she didn't like to take it because she wanted to be able to be awake and enjoy her company and her day. She was an amazing Christian woman taught Bible class for years before she got sick, and she was always in attendance, and loved worshipping her God, and fellowship in with her brothers and sisters in Christ. She will be sorely missed. We'll meet again 🙏❤️

Tawana was always so uplifting for others. She carried a smile to share with everyone even while fighting the battle. We will miss her terribly as will others. Our Prayers and thoughts go to Philip, Seth and the rest of her family. She is without pain.
