“ I’m so heartbroken and confused. I just wished I could’ve held your hand one more time. You held me and prayed with me through my darkest days. You loved me and my kids like your own. You loved us unconditionally. When I found out you were sick my mission was to find you, get to you but I had to respect your wishes. That’s the hardest thing to live with now. I never listen now I wished I would e torn them roads up finding you. Now all I have is great memories and hoping you’ll look after my kids. I promise you I will be the best mom/grandma and most of all just a wonderful person. I wanna spread that same kindness, love and understanding that you always did for all of us. The month of Nov will never be the same for me. Give Fran a big hug for me ! My two favorite aunts together again. This is the only way I have to even say goodbye. Love you Aunt Teresa !!!
