

Teresa Kittle Yates

June 6, 2017

Memorial services for Ms. Teressa Kittle Yates, 49, of Anniston will be Saturday, June 17th, at 2pm in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home.

A memorial service will also be held on the same day in Central Park in New York by family members who live in New York.

She is survived by her sister, Lynn Arnold of Anniston, and her brother, John Kittle of New York, as well as a host of loving nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Edward and Betty Kittle, her husband, Steven Yates, niece, Gena Whitt, and nephew, Clay Arnold.

She graduated from Jacksonville State University with honors, and was a school teacher at Oxford, Saks, and Talladega County schools.

Teressa loved reading, Central Park in New York, Alabama football, and spending time with her many friends. Her loving smile and personality will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

The family would especially like to thank Dr. V.M. Reddy of Anniston, and Dr. Marianthe Grammas at UAB.

If anyone wishes to make a donation in Teressa's memory, donations may be made to: The Rhetta Russell Hendon Teaching Scholarship Fund c/o Regions Bank, P.O. Box 201, Lincoln, AL 35096 or The Teressa Kittle Yates Memorial Fund c/o The Donoho School, 2501 Henry Road, Anniston, AL 36207.
