“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of Terrell. I write his post in hope that I can provide you with some hope and encouragement as I know this must be an incredibly difficult time for you. As a member of the Baptist Church, I know Terrell had a measure of trust in God, and I would like to offer a scripture from God’s Word to provide you comfort. The scripture I always rely on during times like these is Revelation chapter 21 verses 3 and 4 which reads, “3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” The beauty of this scripture, is that it is a promise from God. A promise that in the future he will be with us and will wipe away, pain, suffering, death and mourning. So when we see Terrell again, we will not have to worry about death anymore. You will be able to enjoy your loved one forever. I hope this scripture offers you hope and encouragement, and again, please accept my sincerest condolences.
