Terry's commitment to excellence extended beyond his military service; he pursued higher education and graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1972 with a BS in Computer Science.

traversed the country for military assignments. Fond memories of road trips, visits to landmarks, meals at A&W, and laughter-filled moments in hotel pools will forever be cherished by his loved ones.

Affectionately known as "Grampie" Terry exemplified strength, resilience, and tenderness. He delighted in the joy of his grandchildren, engaging in playful antics, and sharing heartfelt laughter. His enduring love and devotion to his family, especially his beloved wife Mary Ann, spanned over 65 years since their serendipitous meeting in eighth grade, where a playful gesture sparked a lifelong romance.

Terry's unwavering faith in Jesus Christ was the cornerstone of his life. His love for his Savior surpassed all earthly bounds, bringing comfort and solace to those who knew him. As he peacefully rests in the arms of Jesus, reunited with his beloved son Alan and grandson Jordan, Terry's legacy of love, resilience, and sacrifice lives on in the hearts of those he leaves behind.

In the words of his loving wife Mary Ann, "we know his address" Though he may no longer be with us in the physical realm, Terry's spirit lives on, guiding and comforting those who loved him dearly. Until we meet again in Glory, we hold onto the memories, the love, and the enduring legacy of Terry Alan Lambert. We love you and will always miss you.
