“ *First of all my deepest condolences go out to the family of SPC Parrish. I knew Tim because we were in the same Battalion together at Fort Campbell he was in a different company I was in another but somehow we always ended up talking to each during the week and especially on the weekend. I would always remember on the long weekends while at Campbell was him fixing his dark green mustang in the barracks parking lot with tools and equipment spread around his car he seemed to know where everything was. I remember when we deployed in the fall of 2012 to Afghanistan I would always see smile on his face as reported to guard duty.
rip Brother you will be missed let valor not fail
rakkasan
