“ I so wanted to make it to her memorial service in Trussville. But I had been sick all week and couldn't make it. Tracey had a smile that could out shine the sun. We were friends when riding our bikes around the neighborhood and hanging out at sunshine skate center on Friday and Saturday nights when all we were old enough to do . I wish life didn't get in the way and we could have spoke more often but I am glad we keep up through Facebook... Heaven gained a beautiful SMILING Angel once Tracey entered those golden gates!!! RIP my friend
