Mrs. Storey is preceded in death by her husband of 59 years John Storey; infant son, John Scott Storey; parents, Richard and Bertha Turner; brothers, James Turner and WC Turner and her sister, Louise Dunston Hill.

She is survived by her children, Kelley (Dennis) Catoe, Holley (Philip) Rowe, Mykel (Tiffany) Storey and Britny (Don) Caverly; grandchildren, Shelby Brodeur, Haley (Kade) Shaw, Sara Catoe; great grandchildren, Quinn Caverly, Elliot Caverly, Raegan Storey, Hayden Brodeur, Harper Storey and Rowen Kye Shaw; nephew, Chris (Angie) Hill, and her great niece, Jessie Hill.

Mrs. Storey was a devout Christian who gave her life to Christ at a Billy Graham Crusade as a teenager. She was a founding member of Choccolocco Community Church and leaned greatly on her faith through out her life. She was known for her love of children and was owner of Oxford Daycare in the 1980s. She often joked about raising half of Calhoun County. She also had a huge heart for animals and had adopted numerous stray cats and dogs.

Mrs. Storey was affectionately known as Nana and greatly loved her family. Nana was always just a phone call away whenever you needed to talk or someone to pray with. We are thankful and praise God that she was our Mom and Nana.

The family will have a private graveside service.

In lieu of flowers the family ask to please make a donation to Steel Magnolias or your local humane society in her honor.
