“ So sorry to hear of Aunt Jenny’s passing. We have so many loving memories of Aunt Jenny throughout the years. She was a bright light with the best laugh. We loved her dearly.

“ This is one of the hardest things I’ll ever have to do in my lifetime, having to say goodbye to my Aunt but so much more like a Sister. Bear with me, and if you wanna hear more text or call my cell 902-414-894, home 902-864-4203, or email cpandthelma@hotmail.com. From her hospital bed Thelma says good bye to her sister, shopping buddy, and wonderful time spent with Jink and Smitty, all the way back to the summer of 1961. As for me we go back to 1943 when she was 4 and I was 3, we lived with Mamaw and Poppa Roberts till I was 9 and we moved to Oxanna, but still visited an awful lot. She brought Mamaw and Momma to my High School graduation. and brought Momma and Aunt Evia to Nfld for daughter Donna’s wedding. Memories of our time together growing up and time spent with her and Smitty are too much to mention. Guess I’ll just say goodbye good night and rest in peace. Gonna miss the hell out of you, you’ll always be dear to my heart and on my mind.
