“ I was so saddened to learn of Bill's recent passing. I worked with him for many years at NABI. Bill was the subject matter expert for our BaaN ERP system, so anytime we had anything we couldn't figure out, he was ALWAYS our first call! And believe me, that was OFTEN! He was patient, kindhearted, always willing to go the extra mile to make sure you understood what he was trying to "teach", and above all, he was funny. A very dry sense of humor - but very funny. He was quiet - never the one fighting for recognition or "look at me moments", but someone you could always count on to be there when you needed them. A good guy, taken from this world far too soon. Godspeed, Bill. Rest in peace. To his wife, his extended family, and all those who loved him most - my deepest sympathies are with you during this difficult time. Mary Litke
